

NEWS

5 December 2024

NEW CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER APPOINTED

Laurent Gattolliat (47) is to become the new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the Hirslanden Group. He will succeed Pierre-Antoine Binard, who has decided to take up a new challenge.

Laurent Gattolliat has a wide range of experience in the field of finance and administration, as well as in auditing and project management. Over the course of his professional career, he has worked for health and consulting companies, sports organisations and the pharmaceutical industry.

Laurent Gattolliat is currently Group CFO of Reliva AG in Zurich, a private operator of housing and care services for the elderly. Following the takeover of the Reliva Group by Tertianum AG, which is also involved in the elderly housing sector, he was additionally appointed Director Operational Finance and deputy Group CFO of the Tertianum Group.

Laurent Gattolliat started his career as an auditor with consulting firm KPMG. Following this, from 2012 to 2020, he held a managerial position in the finance department of MSD International GmbH in Lucerne, and was Head of Finance and Administration of the Swiss subsidiary of the global pharmaceutical company Menarini Group. He went on to work in the sports sector from 2020 to 2022, first as Senior Commercial Finance Manager at the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in Lausanne, and then as an independent consultant for the Fédération Internationale de Football Association (FIFA).

Laurent Gattolliat has a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Neuenburg, and is qualified as a Swiss Certified Public Accountant.

Daniel Liedtke (CEO) and the members of the Hirslanden Executive Board warmly welcome Laurent Gattolliat and wish him a good start and every success in his new role.

Laurent Gattolliat will take up his role on 1 April 2025.

---